VOLKSSOLIDARITÄT Nordost

Who we are.

What we do.

Who we are looking for.

Our History.

Volkssolidarität was established in October 1945 founded in eastern Germany with the mission to alleviate social hardship and misery after the end of the war.

The work of Volkssolidarität, a social and welfare association, consists of:
Social services, Members' Association and Socio-political Representation of Interests.

153 outpatient care services and 131 inpatient and semi-inpatient care facilities of Volkssolidarität ensure stable and high-quality social-nursing care for 51.000+ people. Volkssolidarität is responsible for 365 day-care centers with 36.000+ children.

Volkssolidarität is one of the largest social and welfare associations in Germany with around 140.000 members and approximately 18.000 employees.
